

Zoran Zoričić

Professor, MD, PhD

Croatia

He is born on 1966. He has been graduated at the School of Medicine (University of Zagreb) on 1991 (MD) as well as postgraduate study in Forensic Psychiatry in 2002 (MSc.). He obtained PhD in 2004 (University of Zagreb).

After graduation he was working as medical doctor (GP) in several institutions in Croatia. Since 1996 he is working at the University Department of Psychiatry at the University Hospital „Sestre milosrdnice“ Zagreb where is current Head of Department for Alcoholism and Other Addictions. He is psychiatrist, alcohol dependence specialist as well as Associate Professor (School of Medicine, University of Zagreb). He completed two years training in Forensic Psychiatry at Clinic for Psychiatry Vrapče Zagreb (1996-1998.).

He is member of the Croatian Medical Society and Croatian Medical Chamber. He is President of Croatian Clubs of Treated Alcoholics, President of the Clubs for Treated Alcoholics of the City of Zagreb and President of the Croatian Society of Alcoholism and Other Addictions. He was member of the organizing committees as well as invited speaker of several domestic, regional and international congresses, symposia and seminars.

He is author or co-author in more than 100 papers and has more of 20 citations based on Institute of Scientific Information (Web of Science) until January 30, 2006. He speaks Croatian and English.